

MONETRAN, LLC

WE COMBINE BLOCKCHAIN AND CRYPTOCURRENCY TO ENABLE FASTER,
CHEAPER TRANSFERS OF FUNDS ON A GLOBAL SCALE

WHAT WE DO

- Monetran is a fintech company based in Delaware, USA
- We have developed an asset-backed, redeemable, stable token called Moneda, which has been designed for mass adoption
- Moneda is backed by interest bearing U.S. Government securities, enabling it to serve as both a medium of exchange and a store of value
- Backing the token with Government securities ensures a return which will largely negate inflation and negative interest rates
- We are building our system on Stellar, ensuring swift, economical transactions resulting in transaction fees for the company
- The Monetran system will enable any type of payment over the internet including commerce, P2P transfers, and remittances
- The method which stabilizes the Moneda token is patent pending.

ADDED FEATURES/BENEFITS

- Federated IDs – making money transfers as easy as email
- Fiat/crypto conversions in various pairings
- Benefits the world's poor by lowering fees on remittances – at least 70% less in most cases
- No mining necessary, saving the environment & precious resources

Those at a disadvantage due to inflation or negative interest rates can place their funds in Moneda and ensure that their wealth will be preserved

MARKET FACTS

- Remittances are greater than a $600 billion global market
 - We intend to compete in this market in various fiat pairings
 - The USD / Mx model would return $10 million to Monetran based on a 3% market penetration at current fees
- Internet purchases are a multi-trillion dollar market
 - We will participate by providing a stable token that will save customers money and that merchants will accept
- We believe virtually all markets could benefit from a cryptocurrency suitable for everyday use and mass acceptance
- Long term goals include partnerships with Amazon & Walmart
- Although there are no known statistics, anecdotal evidence suggests a substantial market for stable tokens by those seeking to preserve their wealth from loss due to local inflation or negative interest rates
